We know the power of positive thinking while we're awake . . . but what about while we sleep? Threads of Intention, at right, is new sleepwear with a message. The print on the clothing is designed as a visual reminder to help strengthen your focus on what you truly desire and intend in your life: Peace love, and joy. Shown below right are comfy pyjama pants ($34) and a long-sleeve tee ($33). And then you can go to sleep with the best of intentions threads of intention.com

OriginONE fashion celebrates the oneness of the human race. The shirts come in a variety of styles and colours for both men and women. Ten per cent of profits will be donated to UNICEF, Families Thru International Adoption, and other agencies that fight for racially unity: $50 at www.IAmOriginOne.com after Nov. 1.

You can feel good and look good. Twig & Twill products support small farmers and organic lifestyles. This jacket, above, is 100% organic, chemical and toxin-free. It can be worn in fall with light tanks and tees, or in winter with a sweater and scarf. This style comes in slate, coffee and seed: $128 at www.twigandtwill.com

Ever wondered where you came from? Using cutting-edge science from National Geographic and IBM, the Genographic Project Public Participation Kit uses a painless cheek swabbing to let you find out the history of your ancestors and their migratory routes around the world. It includes a DVD featuring the film Journey of Man and a National Geographic map. About four weeks after sending in DNA, you use an anonymous access code to see your own personalized history — plus a comprehensive picture of global human migration over the ages. Genetic information will keep being added to the site, so you can go back repeatedly to see if your own history becomes more complete. Kit proceeds go to a fund that supports indigenous peoples aiming to revitalize their languages and cultures: $99.95 at www.nationalgeographic.com/genographic
